F.A.Q’s

Q: What is PBIS?
A: PBIS is a positive behavior intervention strategy. It is a school wide system of support that includes proactive strategies that support positive behavior.

Q: Why is WHS using PBIS?
A: This is a state requirement passed as Indiana House Bill 1529. (July 2011)

Q: Who does PBIS affect?
A: Washington High School. The entire building will implement the P.R.I.D.E model.

Q: What does P.R.I.D.E stand for?
A: Prepared, Respect, Integrity, Discipline, Engaged.

Q: How can I get involved?
A: Contract PBIS Coach Shawn Henderson.

Q: Why teach behavior?
A: Behavior and academic success are correlated. Procedures and routine create structure.
